BOOK ORDERS

The Atlanta Branch Library places orders for new books on the fifteenth of each month. We shall be glad to receive your recommendations for additions to your branch library. If specific titles relating to your work are needed, please give complete order information--author, title, publisher, place, date, price. If more material on some particular phase of your work is needed, please make the general recommendation. Contribute to the building of a book collection which will be of maximum value to you in your work by recommending new titles as you come across them in your professional literature.
